From the desk
of...

Hi All!

I want to talk to you about the Annual Catholic Appeal.

What is the ACA? It's an effort across the Archdiocese to bring both financial and spiritual support to various needs we face as the people of God. From support to lower income families to faith-filled youth programming, the support received from the people of the Archdiocese truly builds up the Body of Christ.

Ok cute, I know. I'm supposed to say this. I'm the Parochial Administrator. But truly I mean it. I benefit greatly from the Appeal.

You may know my other assignment is Assistant Director of Vocations. In this role I work directly with young men and women discerning God's call for their lives. Through the support of the ACA I've talked with college students (Mizzou, Truman, State & SEMO) over pizza & beer. I've gotten coffee with the 20-something wondering what's next. And I've done more zaney things with teens than I have space to recount here.

In short, you've helped me to show Christ's love to these souls. You've even helped some of the people in our pews!

Can you support the Annual Catholic Appeal this year, too? I'm especially hoping we can add some new donors this year. Join those of us (including myself) who support the many causes supported by the ACA.

If you have any questions, please reach out to Jim Schlaker, our St. E's ACA representative. (Thanks Jim!!) Or ask me for more info. We'd love to help!

Thanks so much for your support. Hope you're still having a blessed Easter!

Love Does,
Fr. Fallon
